SHOW RULES

1. All specimens must be Bona Fide property of the exhibitor.
2. The Judges shall be instructed to disqualify and mark any specimen to which fraudulent practices have been resorted.
3. It shall be open for anyone during the show to lodge a complaint against any exhibitor on a deposit of £2.00. This to be returned if the protest is sustained, but forfeited if proved frivolously lodged.
4. Should any bird in a class for hens be heard to sing during the show, it shall be deemed wrongly classed and any prize shall be credited to the next in list of awards.
5. Doncaster BFCC pledge themselves to make proper arrangement for the care of all specimens sent, but cannot be held responsible for any loss or damage to them to, from or during the show.
6. Exhibitors shall lift their own birds, but no one leaves the show hall until everyone is satisfied that they have their own birds.
7. Any questions arising that are not covered by these stated rules shall be dealt with by the committee whose decision will be final.
8. All birds must be in standard cages.
9. No handling of cages during the show, except when show manager is in attendance.
10. The judges decision is final regarding the showing and placing of awards.
