MEMORIAL SHOW

Presidents Address.

It gives me great pleasure for the honor bestowed upon me by the club for nominating me as their President, talking to fanciers and how they advice of the difficult breeding seasons that they endure year on year, however they all breath a sigh of relief when the show season comes around, as they all look forward to travelling to their chosen shows and meet up with their fellow fanciers and dear friends.

Where they will put all the breeding seasons lows behind them and be proud of what they have bred and keen to share their show teams with fellow fanciers, I wish you all the success for the forthcoming show season, hopefully catch up with you at the show.

Sincere Regards,

Kelvin Howell.

Biosecurity Rules.

1.3 Biosecurity 6) The licensee must take all reasonable steps to prevent the spread of notifiable avian disease onto, within and off the premises or vehicle where the gathering is held and that in the event of a disease outbreak or suspicion all birds attending the gathering are traceable. 7) The licensee of any fair, market, show or exhibition must provide biosecurity advice in advance of such an event to all participants that must include: (a) a recommendation that birds should be health-checked before travelling to any gathering; and (b) advice that any birds travelling from a gathering to any premises (whether they are returning to premises of origin or to a new location) should be isolated from other birds at that premises and health-monitored for at least one week afterwards

8) The licensee must also advise participants to comply with the mandatory registration requirements for keepers of birds kept at any premises in Great Britain: • in relation to the premises of origin in being in England and Wales for any bird attending a gathering in England, the keeper must be registered with the Animal and Plant Health Agency on the kept bird register and provide evidence of registration before being granted entry; and in relation to the premises of origin in being in Scotland for any bird attending a gathering in England, the keeper must be registered on the Scottish Kept Bird Register operated by the Animal and Plant Health Agency; and provide evidence of registration before being granted entry.

9) The licensee must not allow any cage, crate, basket, receptacle or other container onto a gathering which is visibly contaminated with bird droppings or other material of bird origin, other than faeces produced during the transportation of the birds to the gathering. The licensee must make this requirement known in advance to all participants in its advertising literature, on entry forms or by any other appropriate means.

10) Thorough cleansing and disinfection of all solid surfaces exposed to birds or faecal material must be carried out by the licensee as soon as practicable after birds have left the gathering and before the next event. These surfaces include, but are not limited to, hard-standing, concrete, paved or tarmac areas, floors, walls, tables and vehicles used at the event.

If an area cannot be cleansed and disinfected (for example grassed areas) then a further gathering may not be held until authorised in writing by APHA. ined by a veterinary inspector and written authority obtained from APHA permitting them to leave the gathering; and v) ensure that waste material, including any feed to which any birds had access, all bedding, droppings, bird carcasses or other material of bird origin, that remain at the end of the event, is: a) disposed of so that birds (including wild birds) do not have access to them (this should include double-bagging, followed by secure removal by a suitably licensed waste operator); or b) treated so as to remove the risk of transmission of disease; and vi) ensure that any cages, crates, baskets, pens or other containers not removed from the premises or vehicle used for the gathering by those attending the gathering are cleansed and disinfected as soon as reasonably practicable after the end of the gathering and in any case before they are used again; and vii) ensure that cleansing and disinfection facilities (for example hand-washing facilities, disinfectant mats and foot-dips) are available to participants and visitors on site, and that participants adhere to good biosecurity practises; and viii) ensure that anyone seen to be visibly contaminated with faecal material, feathers or other material of bird origin is refused entry to the bird area until such contamination has been removed.

1.5 Record keeping 13) The licensee must require all participants bringing birds to a gathering, other than participants bringing racing pigeons to a race event, to complete and return a signed declaration form before allowing entry to where live birds are kept or gathered, confirming: a) they have read the information provided and will comply with the biosecurity requirements; and b) that to the best of their knowledge their birds have not been in contact with any notifiable avian disease agents and do not show any signs of infection; and c) the address of the premises of origin of the birds, with confirmation that the birds do not originate from a premises within a Protection Zone, Surveillance Zone, Temporary Control Zone, Temporary Movement Control Zone or other notifiable avian disease controlled zone d) that the premises of origin has been registered on the Kept Bird Register (for premises in England and Wales) or the Scottish Kept Birds Register (SKBR) for premises in Scotland, and that they have supplied details of the CPH number.

- 14) The licensee must make a record of all people who bring birds to their gathering, or take such birds from the gathering, and keep such record for at least 3 months following the event. The licensee must present these records when requested by an APHA inspector or Local Authority inspector. The record must be provided to an inspector if requested. The record must include at least the following information: a) full name; and b) home address including postcode and details of premises of origin of the birds if different from the home address, including the CPH number; and c) telephone numbers (landline and/or mobile); and d) email address (if available); and e) number and types of birds exhibited, raced, re-homed, bought or sold, details of the origin and eventual destination of the birds; and f) the signed declaration referred to in condition 12 (required for all participants except those bringing racing pigeons at a race event)
- 15) The licensee must require as a condition of entry, for all events or gatherings, that all participants check their birds for disease prior to departure from the event or gathering.

Memorial for members passed during the last year.

Mrs. Sylvia Dewland.

Sylvia was a longstanding member of Welsh Border who worked hard in the kitchen making food for members and visitors. Sylvia showed borders along with husband Phil as P. & S. Dewland for many years. Also whilst at other shows Sylvia would always help wherever she could.

Condolences to Phil and family.

Mr. Phil Hitchings.

Phil was a long-standing member of West Wales Border, was a trophy steward for many years, also chief steward at the shows, over the years Phil would attend most of the meetings.

Condolences to Thelma and family.

Mr. Winston Kift.

Winston was a long-standing member of West Wales Border, was a show manager for many years and well known across the Border world with his dark birds, also showing and judging in partnership with Billy Davies.

Condolences to Carol and family.

Mr. Graham Pearce.

Graham was a long-standing member of West Wales Border, he held many positions within the club over the years, he favoured the greens and cinnamon birds, he was also convention approved panel judge who officiated at shows across the country.

Condolences to Val and family.

Mrs Tina Harris.

Tina a very good supporter of West Wales, A bubbly character always laughing and joking with visitors and members as she was selling raffle tickets in the show and in the dinner dance on the Saturday night of the show.

Condolences to Ian and family.
