Exhibitors are welcome to stay in the hall during the show but because of limited space we would ask that you stay well away from the judging tables.

The show will be governed by the rules of the EABFCC and should any matter arise not covered by these rules it shall be dealt with at the discretion of the committee whose decision shall be final.

Careful arrangements have been made for the care and safety of exhibits, but no responsibility will be accepted for any loss or damage from any cause whatsoever.

All unflighted birds competing for club specials must be closed rung with member's current year ring issued by a specialist club or C.B.S. and be identifiable as such.

No unflighted birds to be shown in flighted classes.

No birds to be moved from their position on the staging until after the prize giving.

The Border Convention Novice Rule Applies.

The prize giving will be at 2.30pm approximately

Birds can be lifted after prize giving, but no birds to leave the hall until all birds are boxed and all exhibitors are satisfied they have the correct birds.

White sawdust only on cage floor.

Birds entered in the wrong class will be marked as such and will not be judged.

Any protest should be made in writing by 2.15pm and be accompanied by a fee of £ 5.00, refundable only if upheld.

The EAST ANTRIM BORDER FANCY CANARY CLUB gratefully acknowledges the support from all who have contributed in any way to the running of the show.
